BLOOMINGTON, Ill. — Illinois Farm Bureau (IFB) ACTIVATOR today announced Illinois State Representative Sara Wojcicki Jimenez of the 99th District has been endorsed as a "Friend of Agriculture".

"We are pleased to designate Rep. Wojcicki Jimenez as a Friend of Agriculture and endorse her," said J.D. Sudeth, member of the ACTIVATOR trustee committee for the 99th District. "Her strong support of issues important to the farmers of her district and her service on the House Agriculture and Conservation Committee were appreciated by Farm Bureau members. We look forward to helping her with her campaign."

IFB ACTIVATOR designates legislators as a "Friend of Agriculture" and endorses them because they demonstrate an understanding of the important role agriculture plays in Illinois. Those designated a "Friend of Agriculture" have shown they support the farmers of their district and the issues important to them.

ACTIVATOR, Illinois Farm Bureau's Political Involvement Fund, is a voluntary, non-profit, segregated fund promoting the economic and social well-being of farmers which seeks to help elect pro-farm candidates no matter their party affiliation. ACTIVATOR trustees are local Farm Bureau leaders representing each county in the Illinois General Assembly Legislative District.
