

Kenneth M. Fry was born March 12, 1922 on the Fry Farm in Pawnee Illinois, the same farm his father had moved to in 1891 with his parents when he was only 6 months old. Kenneth's parents, William Floyd and Hattie Fry as well as his grandparents, D.B. and Elizabeth Fry worked the farm all of their lives as has he. Kenneth graduated from Pawnee High School in 1940 and attended Brown's Business College for a year, before starting to farm with his father. He, with his wife Ruth, have 2 sons, Keith and Kendall. When they completed their schooling, they also began farming. In 1982 they formed a family corporation, Fry Farms, Inc. Due to health problems, Keith left the operation and relocated to Florida in 2003. Having been involved in several organizations over the years such as Pawnee Lodge #675, Ancient Free and Accepted Masons in February 2004 he received recognition for sixty years of membership. Kenneth is quoted as saying "I consider it a great honor and privilege to be accepted in the Eighty Year Old Hall of Fame."

2004 Recipient
Kenneth M. Fry
Pawnee, Illinois

Kenneth M. Fry was born March 12, 1922 on the Fry Farm in Pawnee, Illinois, the same farm his father had moved to in 1891 with his parents when he was only 6 months old. Kenneth's parents, William Floyd and Hattie Fry as well as his grandparents, D.B. and Elizabeth Fry worked the farm all of their lives as he has. Kenneth graduated from Pawnee High School in 1940 and attended Brown's Business College for a year, before starting to farm with his father. He, with his wife Ruth, have 2 sons, Keith and Kendall. When they completed their schooling, they also began farming. In 1982 they formed a family corporation. Fry Farms, Inc. Due to health problems, Keith left the operation and relocated to Florida in 2003. Having been involved in several organizations over the years such as Pawnee Lodge #675, Ancient Free and Accepted Masons in February 2004 he received recognition for sixty years of membership, Kenneth is quoted as saying “I consider it a great honor and privilege to be accepted in the Eighty Year Old Hall of Fame.”

2004 Recipient
Kenneth M. Fry
Pawnee, Illinois