Bard Optical was founded over 80 years ago in Peoria, Illinois by Dr. A. Arthur Bard. In 1981 Diana J. Hall purchased Bard and the company grew from a single office to a noted, woman-owned, national leader in professional eyecare and quality eyewear. Bard Optical has now expanded to over 21 locations in Central and Southern Illinois.

Bard Optical has been recognized by both the vision care industry and the region – and is listed as one of the Top 50 Optical organizations in the country by a national trade magazine. Bard now caters to businesses, as well as individuals, providing Vision Insurance Benefits, Employee Discount Plans, and Safety Eyewear Discount Programs.
